EDITORS NOTE :

What is faith? It is made up of three things—knowledge, belief, and trust. Knowledge comes first. “How shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard?” I want to be informed of a fact before I can possibly believe it. “Faith cometh by hearing”; we must first hear, in order that we may know what is to be believed. “They that know thy name shall put their trust in thee.” A measure of knowledge is essential to faith; hence the importance of getting knowledge. “Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live.” Such was the word of the ancient prophet, and it is the word of the gospel still. Search the Scriptures and learn what the Holy Spirit teach concerning Christ and His salvation. Seek to know God: “For he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.” May the Holy Spirit give you the spirit of knowledge, and of the fear of the Lord! Know the gospel: know what the good news is, how it talks of free forgiveness, and of change of heart, of adoption into the family of God, and of countless other blessings..... Rev.K.Abraham

ESTHER

BY.. SANDRA BLAKESTON...ENGLAND. INTL .MISSIONARY FOR JTM.

Read book of Esther.....I want to speak about a woman in the bible called Esther. God called her at a crucial time, when a man named Haman, a man full of pride, expected people to bow down to him and honour him as he was the kings highest representative. Esters cousin Mordicai refused to bow down to him, as he was a Jew and would only bow down to the one true God. Esther had been made queen as the first queen of king Xerxes refused to come into the king's presence and had been sent away and her position had been given to Esther. The king's advisors stated that if the kings own wife disobeyed him, and then other men's wives would be tempted to disobey there husbands too. Haman was furious with Mordicai and had a gallows built to hang Mordicai, but Esther told the king of Haman's plan to wipe out her people the Jews and so the king had Haman hung on his own gallows.

What can we learn from this story? That sometimes we will be called to do outstanding things for God, maybe dangerous things, but God will be with us and protect us. Also we learn to be obedient to our husbands, this is God's will. We also know that we do not bow down to anyone or anything except our Father God and our Lord Jesus Christ

If we remain silent, God will use someone else, but we will suffer loss. Esther could have said no, and been killed along with her family. We may not lose our lives for not answering God's call, but we will suffer loss when rewards are given out in heaven.

FAITH REVEALED THROUGH BANANA

I was called to pray for a house built recently and as soon as I finished my prayed I found a young woman stood besides me. She is pregnant. When I turned back, she called me and witnessed before the people gathered there about God's miracle done in her life which is amazing grace of God.. When I was here to lay a foundation stone four months back this young woman asked me to pray for her to bear a baby as she was barren woman from five years. I prayed for her and gave her two bananas which I had in my hand given by the house owners of the house. She is now carrying with three months pregnancy and witnessed with the people God answered our prayers on that day we asked Him. . Thank God for His wonderful miracle for her faith in God. Our God is always faithful and when we ask Him, He will grant what we need. Pray always faithfully .....Rev.K.Abraham
